Experience and qualifications

Clara Badia Bogner is a Spanish lawyer (Barcelona Bar Association). After graduating from school (International Baccalaureate), she studied business administration and law at Pompeu Fabra University in Barcelona, including a semester abroad at the law faculty of the University of Mannheim.

Clara Badia Bogner went on to work as a legal assistant at a renowned Spanish commercial law firm before moving to Mannheim and passing the Spanish bar exam in the fall of 2024.

Clara Badia Bogner advises in particular on Spanish and European commercial law. Her areas of specialization include compliance law.

As a native German speaker, Clara Badia Bogner advises in German; however, she is equally fluent in Spanish, Catalan and English.

In addition to her work as a lawyer, Clara Badia Bogner is also a very successful athlete. She is a member of the Spanish women's national field hockey team, with which she also took part in the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris and was European Junior Champion in 2019. She is also a regular player for the Mannheimer Hockey Club, the reigning German champion.
